filmmakers!

Named among the top 15 international schools by Hollywood Reporter.

The internationally renowned Film program creates graduates who master the art of the moving image. Discover the best way of telling your story and engaging an audience through cinematic techniques and skills. Learn by doing and gain hands-on experience in all aspects of film production, from cinematography and sound design to filming with digital and analog technologies.

Located in the heart of Toronto, the epicentre of filmmaking in Canada, you'll be taught and mentored by filmmakers with experience in the industry and film scholars who teach high-level academic courses, and forge lasting collaborations with your peers by creating a body of fiction and non-fiction short films.

DIVERSE CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Through a thriving and collaborative community network, graduates build a bridge to professional life in careers that span the entire film industry. Our alumni are working as directors, editors, cinematographers, producers, and independent filmmakers. Notable graduates include Andrew Cividino (Schitt's Creek and Sleeping Giant), Jeremy Podeswa (Game of Thrones, The Walking Dead, and True Blood), Brandon Cronenberg (Possessor, Antiviral and Infinity Pool), Jasmin Mozaffari (Firecrackers) and Alicia K. Harris (Pick and Solid) among others.

EXPLORE NEW TECHNOLOGIES

Expand your creative and analytical skills by exploring interactive, cross-platform, and cross-disciplinary art practices. The Integrated Digital option offers studio, technical, and theory courses with a particular emphasis on digital media and emerging creative technologies allowing you to explore film, animation, virtual reality, creative coding, projection mapping, digital media installation, and 3D modelling among others.

IMAGE ARTS FILM FESTIVAL

Premiere your fourth-year thesis film and network with industry professionals at the annual Image Arts Film Festival, one of Toronto's biggest exhibitions of student film work. This public festival, organized by film students and held in a professional-quality theatre, is attended by industry professionals looking for upcoming film talent. Many films go on to other international film festivals and win awards.

HANDS-ON LEARNING

Take advantage of access to state-of-the-art, industry-grade equipment and facilities including a suite of celluloid and digital cameras and lenses, a sound stage, screening rooms, a film processing lab, film editing suites, audio mixing facilities, and more.

GO INTERNATIONAL

Gain a global perspective through international semester exchange programs, short-term travel opportunities or virtual collaborations that let you collaborate with like-minded students on a global scale.
